

PEPE DELUXÉ

QUEEN OF THE WAVE

AN ESOTERIC POP OPERA IN THREE PARTS

THE LYRICS
CODEx

1. Queenswave

Let me sing a song for you,
let me spin a tale that's true.
A story 'bout the days of gold,
a story more than ages old.

Last
echoes of ancient harmonies, reflecting their present images.
Like
falling leaves that keep their green, falling leaves of wisdom from a Queen.

Now let me sing a song for you,
let me spin a tale that's true.
A story 'bout the days of sun,
the days before the Ocean won.

 Solo **

Let me sing a song for you,
let me spin a tale that's true.
A story 'bout the days of light,
the days before the darkest night.

2. A Night and a Day

In the field at play, all day, last summer,
far and away I heard
the sweet (sweet) tweet (tweet) of a new-comer,
a strange new-comer.
The dearest, clearest call of a bird.
It lived down there,
in the deep green hollow,
that home where the fairies say:
"The word of a bird is a thing to follow".
So I was away,
I was away a night and a day.

Black and chill is the moon on the
wold;
you shall grow up, but never grow old.
Dark and chill is the sun on the
wold;
I will always, always be told.

Now listen:
Sometimes I wouldn't speak, you see,
or answer when they spoke to me, because in the long (long), still (still) twilights of every Spring.
You can sense the whole world whispering,
humming and hammering at your
ear,
everything there is to hear.
So I went away,
I was away a night and a day.

Axte Incal, axtuce mun. (Harmony vocals)

3. Go Supersonic

Now if you
do what you have done then you will surely go where you've gone, so you should go when you are gonna go,
'cause if you don't go you're done when still just making up your mind
and we will find the only thing to win is so gone gone gone gone gone gone gone gone.

Supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it
movin' out, movin' out,
going with a blast blast.

Supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it movin' out, steppin' out ...

Now if you
do what they have done then you will surely go
where they've
gone, so you should know where you
are gonna go,
'cause if you don't
know you're done when still just
trying to find you way
and we can't
stay away, pretend it's gonna be ok
ok ok ok.

We know the House of the Dark,
we know the path, the Night Side Mark.

We know the treasure it holds, halls of the Hail and halls of the Cold.

We know the seven of the black,
the seven colors, back to back.
The night is more pregnant than the day...
and going all the way.

You better dress for action,
dress for action like a Powerman.
Never wait for reaction,
join the race that has begun.

Don't look back.
Don't look back till we are back on
the track.
Take my hand.
Don't look back till we are back on
the track.
Hold on tight.
Don't look back till we are back on
the track.
Go like Hell.
Race like Hell till we get ...
get out of this place.

Now if you
do what they have done then you
will surely go
where they have
gone, so you should know where you
are gonna go,
'cause if you don't
know you're done when still just
trying to find you way
and we can't
stay away, pretend it's gonna be ok
ok ok ok.

Supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it
movin' out, movin' out,
going with a blast blast.

Supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it,
supersonic and stepping on it
and we are

movin' out, ridin' out,
going with a blast blast.

Supersonic.
Stepping on it.
Supersonic.
Stepping on it.
Supersonic.
Stepping on it.
Supersonic.
Stepping on it.
going with a blast blast.

4. Temple of Unfed Fire

Aaaaa, aaaa, aaaa, aaaa.
Aaaaa, aaaa, aaaa, aaaa.

Welcome to the temple.
Welcome to the pyramid.

Keepers of the unfed fire.

Burning with a white light.
Burning high and very bright.

We are to be
harmony, in harmony.

Hear the great organ.
Hear the master organist.

Keepers of the unfed fire.

All along stalactites.
All along stalagmites.

Voices ringing,

and they are all in harmony,
and they are all in harmony.

Light from the
the night side of
of nature,
the Nature
will teach you.

5. Contain Thyself

Are we crossing the border of the pale,
is this the end, the end of our tale?
Are we saying goodbye to old friends,
sailing away on a crave?

Wisdom to understand,
kindness of strength,
mercy in victory,
majestic foundation.

I pray.

Nothing is turning our ships off the course,
day after day heading straight to the source.
No-one is sailing these seas of harm,
sailing without remorse.

Wisdom to understand,
kindness of strength,
mercy in victory,
majestic foundation.

Contain Thyself.
Contain Thyself.
Contain Thyself,
My sweetest friend,
remember how,
we used to lend
all our hope,
remember how,
there was always
more to spend.

This is the island, the island by the edge,
the end of the world, the end of our pledge,
to uphold our friendship,
to safeguard the tree,
the tree of the sheltered and free.

6. Hesperus Garden

Lend me, a little while,
a little while the key,
rarer than books
and pearls and beads
bright to see.

It locks your heavy portal,
and then I'll give you back--
this little Key of Dreams straight out of my pack.

Oh well well well...
Oh my oh my...
Your fate is fixed,
yet my mind is mixed
up...
for good.

Give me the key
that locks your tired eyes, brighter than painted books that make men wise,

and I will lend you this one,
one from my pack.
Take it. Take it.
No, give it back!

Oh well well well...
Oh my oh my...

Your fate is fixed,
yet my mind is mixed
up...
for good.

Sometimes,
oh sometimes
I know the way.
You walk,
you walk up over the bay;

it is the wind
from that distant dusty sea that blows the fragrance of your hair to me.

Or in this garden
when the breeze,
when the breeze,
it touches my trees,

to stir their shadows
on the red grass,
I see you pass,
you always just pass,
you always just pass .

What if we stopped
and let our selves go by...
there by the wayside,
forgotten you and I.

What if my ghost
caught and captured yours,
would you still hide
behind the bolted doors?

Oh well well well...
Oh my oh my...
Your fate is fixed,
yet my mind is mixed
up...
for good.
That's right.

Oh well well well...
Oh my oh my...
Your fate is fixed,

yet my mind is mixed
up...
for good.

7. Grave Prophecy

Awake earth child and arise!
The Daystar gleams in skies!
Open up your,
open up your eyes!

Awake earth child and arise!
It's sunset in disguise!
Open up your,
open up your eyes!

Awake true child, take a stand!
The glass is out of sand!
Let them under,
Let them understand!

Awake true child, take a stand!
Proclaim it to this land!
Let them under,
Let them understand!

(Spoken)

A day shall come: the Book of Laws disappears.

A day shall come: the Unfed Light goes out.

A day shall come: the Land is no more, never to be seen by the sun again.

8. In the Cave

 Instrumental **

9. My Flaming Thirst

Am I about to give in,
am I about to do this thing.
It has the ring of truth that is beautiful ... a lovely lie.

Deep in my mind
I've seen that I break
what I must never break,
the last seal of the gate.

All you need
is a drop of me,
all you ask
is that I will free
you, only you,
from thirst,
from flaming thirst.
(That flaming thirst.)

You're not the
the one I
the one I wanna want.
 2 (Whispered)*

This secret emptiness is screaming at me, dusk till dawn.
And such an incantation releases something long thought
gone.

Deep in my mind
I've seen that I break
what I must never break,
the last seal of the gate.

All you need
is a drop of me,
all you ask
is that I will free
you, only you,
from thirst,
from flaming thirst.

All you need
is a drop of me,
all you ask
is that I will free
you, only you,
from thirst,
your flaming thirst.

Our flaming thirst.

10. Iron Giant

Going around and coming around,
laa de daa de daa.

A
one-eyed face and bustling sounds,
laa de daa de daa.

These are the iron chains of iron veins
that hold,
hold together
the people both young and old.

(and maidens with pigtailed they love)

The friendly giant,
he's so compliant,
laa de daa de daa.

The friendly giant,
he's serving all of us,
laa de daa de daa.

Mechanical wonder,
you're slow but that's a plus,
laa de daa de daa.

11. The Storm

Listen listen,
roll of thunder,
hear it rumble.

Listen listen,
oh so furious,
stand from under!

Listen listen,
roll of thunder,
hear it rumble.

Listen listen,
oh so furious,
stand from under!

 Solo **

Listen listen,
roll of thunder,
hear it rumble.

Listen listen,
oh so furious,
stand from under!

Listen listen,
Father of the rain,
make a wonder.

Listen listen,
bless the dry land
Lord of Thunder.

12. Riders on the First Ark

M:

A new born ocean, blue out of the blue.

A voyage from nowhere, just passing thru.

I think of remembrance,
the sense we lost,
the sense of being lost.

A new horizon, blue out of the blue.

F:

All the fauna with two horns, he forgot the Unicorns.

Only two of every kind, every kind that we could find.

These days are the past,
but in the tales they'll last,
in the future we'll sparkle again.

M:

A new born ocean, blue out of the blue.

A voyage to somewhere, just passing thru.

I think of remembrance,
the things we lost,
the things that got us lost.

A new horizon ...

 Bridge **

F:

All the fauna with two horns, he forgot the Unicorns.

Only two of every kind, every kind that we could find.

These days are the past,
but in the tales they'll last,
in the future we'll sparkle again..
and again.

All the people with their flaws, they forgot the book of laws
Every one of every kind, every kind but all too blind.

M:

To see
the ones they lost,
the ones we all lost.

A new born morning, blue out of the blue

A new horizon, land out of the blue.

M&F:

Land out of the blue!

Land out of the blue!

Land out of the blue!

Land out of the blue!
